THE GLASGOW ART CLUB

WEDDINGS...

Residing in two adjacent 19th century town houses designed with the help of Charles Rennie Mackintosh, The Glasgow Art Club is the perfect place to hold a wedding with individual style.

With its stunning Gallery full of original features including two of the most impressive fireplaces you are likely to see, The Glasgow Art Club will provide you with some wonderful memories - not to mention stunning photographs.

Our award winning caterers 'En Croute' will make sure you get a personalised menu that not only tastes good but looks fantastic too.

From formal to the most informal of celebrations, we pride ourselves on tailoring a day that will suit any style and budget you have in mind.
